

Engagement Specialist Behavioral Health Department

The Juvenile Justice Center of Philadelphia (JJC) is a non-profit, multi-service organization that serves the needs of disadvantaged children, youth and families. Our mission is to maintain families through supportive services, to prevent children and youth from being placed in care, and also to ready families for reunion with their children. JJC has an In-Home Detention (IHD) Case Worker position opening in our Coulter Street office(s).

Job Summary

The IHD Case Worker is an integral team member of the Home-based Delinquent Services (HBDS) department. The IHD Caseworker provides casework and supervision to clients and families in the In Home Detention component of the HBDS Program. The IHD caseworker meets the objectives of providing sufficient supervision to ensure the youth's appearance in court, remain arrest-free, observe curfews, and school and/ or work attendance is adhered to.

Qualifications

- Candidate must have a High School diploma, insured automobile and a positive attitude.
- Self Motivated individual that wants to work and help clientele, who need, but may be resistant to receive your assistance.
- Good writing skills and the ability to document and act on necessary information.
- An awareness of the city of Philadelphia as far as driving directions and resources
- The use of a car each day, including the possession of current auto insurance and valid driver's license.
- The ability and willingness to adjust hours in accord with job responsibility. Evening and weekend hours are inevitable.

- Working cell phone.

The position is Fee-For-Service and cases are allocated on an as needed basis. Cases are not guaranteed and the position is a contracted position. Organization benefits do not apply.

Please send resume, cover letter and salary requirement to hrdepartment@juvenilejustice.org

JJC is an Equal Opportunity Employer, embracing diversity and inclusion in all of its services.