

Director of Clinical Development Behavior Health Department

The Juvenile Justice Center of Philadelphia (JJC) is a non-profit, multi-service organization that serves the needs of disadvantaged children, youth and families. Our mission is to maintain families through supportive services, to prevent children and youth from being placed in care, and also to ready families for reunion with their children. JJC has a Director of Clinical Development opening at our Coulter Street office location.

Job Summary

The Director of Clinical Development is an integral part of the Behavior Health department. The Director of Clinical Development assists the Senior Director of Clinical Operations with ensuring that the behavioral health programs are operating at efficient levels of quality and compliance. This includes ascertaining that individuals and families are benefiting from services, conducting investigations in response to complaints or suspicion and evaluating quality of clinical documentation. This Assistant Director will also conduct trainings related to Fraud, Waste and Abuse, as well as other topics deemed necessary in order to adhere to all quality and compliance standards of the managed care organization and state regulations.

Qualifications

- Master's degree in a clinical mental health discipline, such as psychology, counseling, clinical social work, psychiatric nursing or marriage and family therapy. The degree must include 12 credit hours of core behavioral health coursework. Licensure required (LSW or LPC).
- At least 2 years of experience providing administrative and/or clinical supervision, providing feedback regarding documentation and work habits and investigating documentation, reports of no service, etc.
- At least one year post-Master's experience providing behavioral health services to children and families.

- Experience working specifically within Behavioral Health Rehabilitative Services (BHRS) and knowledge of all roles within this system.
- Understanding of CBH and state regulations for documentation.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Valid Child Abuse (Act 33), Criminal History, and FBI clearances
- Participation in and completion of all CBH mandatory in-services

JJC is an Equal Opportunity Employer, embracing diversity and inclusion in all of its services.

JJC offers salary compensable with experience. Competitive benefits and comprehensive benefits: Medical/Prescription Insurance/Dental Insurance/Vision Insurance/Life Insurance/Short and Long Term Disability/Vacation/Paid Sick Time/Holidays/ 401(k) Retirement Plan

Please send resume, cover letter and salary requirement to hrdepartment@juvenilejustice.org